

CUPW Issues Strike Notices to Canada Post

October 25, 2018

Notice to Harbourfront Clients:

While negotiations continue between Canada Post and The Canadian Union of Postal Workers (CUPW), the CUPW has announced further strike action. Since, Monday, October 22, 2018, CUPW has been conducting rotating strikes in various Provincial regions. Please click on the links below to obtain the latest news.

Harbourfront has established the following alternative delivery methods:

Client Statement and Trade Confirmations: Month end statements and trade confirmations will be held during any service interruption and released immediately once the disruption is over. We encourage you to register for online access to your account(s) if you haven't already by visiting <https://harbourfrontwealth.com/> and clicking on the "CLIENT LOGIN" tab. Follow the onscreen instructions to register. With online access you can view and download a copy of your statement or confirmation once they are available. Alternatively, you can contact your Investment Advisor and arrange for a copy of your statement or trade confirmation to be delivered via email or courier.

Fund Facts and Point of Sale Disclosure: Fund Facts documents will be delivered via email, fax, or courier. Please contact your Investment Advisor for additional information.

New Issue Prospectuses: a scanned copy will be delivered via email, fax, or courier.

Funds Payable to Clients: Electronic Funds transfer (EFT) is free of charge and will be used if you have established this form of payment arrangement. Alternatively, your funds can be wired, or a cheque issued and courier to you upon request. You will be billed for wired or courier charges.

If you need to make a Payment on your Account: Payment can be made by electronic funds transfer (EFT) and is free of charge. You can also use electronic bill payment if your banking institution offers this service. However, funds sent via bill payment can only be deposited to your investment account number that ends with the alpha A, E, R, S, or W. Alternatively, you can deliver a cheque to your Harbourfront branch for deposit.

Harbourfront will monitor the situation closely and we will return to normal service as soon as possible after any service disruption. Please contact your Investment Advisor if you have any questions.
